This enclave, in the heart of the Costa del Sol, is ideal for enjoying the tranquility and nature of the area without sacrificing all the services you need in your daily life. Just a minute's walk away are supermarkets, pharmacies, cafés, restaurants. . . And a 5- minute drive away is the lively centre of Estepona, where you can enjoy endless activities for the whole family. If there is one thing that characterises the Costa del Sol, it's the incredibly clear skies and the large number of sunny days throughout the year. A unique setting where you can go to the beach, exercise outdoors or just go for a walk...(Ask for More Details!)
