Opportunity to start a restaurant near the picturesque village of Mijas . This property has been known for years as the famous, successful and cosy restaurant El Molino del Cura! Proper renovation can bring back the charm this restaurant and its patio with bougainvillea once had or even make it more modern and beautiful! On the ground-floor level you will find the original mil stone which is a special feature. There is also a bodega and another sitting area with a fire place. The ceiling is renovated with wooden beams, making the rustic mill house cosy and warm. In this area tables used to be placed next to the wooden...(Ask for More Details!)
